VOL. 38 BARIUM SPRINGS, N. C., DECEMBER 1961 No. 12

Sports Program In Full Swing

The fall and winter months find the boys and girls of the Home exceedingly busy with the sports program. The Troutman School carries on both junior varsity and varsity programs. This involves boys and girls from the seventh through the twelfth grade. The Barium boys and girls have been able to earn a good name for themselves in participation in the sports. The varsity football program found seventeen boys on the squad, three of these were selected as all-conference players; Bob Ramsey and Braxton Bridgers in the line and Charles McLean in the backfield. The junior varsity squad in its second year is making good headway. This enables the younger boys to prepare for participation in high school football by giving them extra training.

December began three months of basketball. Both varsity and junior varsity teams will be representing the Troutman School and many Barium boys and girls will find themselves working hard for starting positions.

In addition to these activities, more than two dozen students are in the band of the Troutman High School. Thanksgiving and Christmas parades have had them very busy as well as the football games they attended. These school activities together with the regular duties of the Home make for very busy days for the children.

From the first graders to the twenty seniors and including all adults of the campus comes the greeting "Merry Christmas and Happy New Year!" May the light and love of the Christ Child born long ago be shed abroad in the hearts and lives of the people of the earth so that all may follow Him throughout the Christmas Season and in the New Year.

HOLIDAY SEASON CROWDED WITH VARIED EVENTS

From Thanksgiving till New Years is one glorious season with the crowning event being Christmas week. The writing of letters to Santa Claus touches off the enthusiasm and excitement for Christmas which continues in a rising crescendo and almost rocks the old campus loose and sends it into orbit. Everybody is busy and there is so much to be done. Shopping tours for every cottage and money to spend for every child is a requirement at the Home. Then there is the wrapping and the tying and the mailing and giving that comes with the result of the Christmas shopping on the part of the big family. Houseparents and caseworkers are busy seeing that every cottage and every child is abundantly provided for in Santa Claus. Never a dime in the budget for Christmas and never a Christmas that isn't wonderful, because of the goodness of people.

A Christmas week begins with the treasured tradition of family night, tree decoration, and the making of the family gifts to others. The Big Barium Family gathers in the dining room at Rumple Hall for a simple supper together. In candlelight the whole family sings the carols as each person, young and old, makes his way to the tree to give to the big red stocking in the name of someone else and to place a piece of decoration on the tree. Thus, this tree standing in the middle of the dining room becomes the heart of Christmas as we remember that it "is more blessed to give than to receive."

Christmas services play a big part in the happiness of the Home at Christmastime. The Pioneer Group presented "Bethlehem Is Here" about the middle of December. The Chancel Choir's Cantata "Childe Jesus," a fine contribution. Senior Highs presented a Christmas play entitled "Love Came Down." On Christmas Eve the church lighted in candlelight was a scene of a lovely Christmas service.

Christmas Day, with all of its excitement, began in the morning with a service of worship, was followed by the Christmas trees and Santa Claus in the cottages. The big dining room brought the family together at noon for a turkey dinner with homemake cakes and ice cream for dessert. Those who had remembered Barium Springs made possible a glorious meal in the big dining hall for the family. An afternoon of fun and fellowship in the gymnasium displayed new clothes, dolls, toys, gadgets and things that come as a part of Christmas, while in Fellowship Hall with big open fire and Christmas music friends and loved ones came to chat for awhile together.

'Tis true that Christmas is lovely everywhere but it seems especially lovely at Barium Springs, and 1961 marks again for the whole campus the meaning of Christmas in the life of this Home and in the life of the world. It is truly "Immanuel —God with us."

Thirty-Eight Admitted Since Vacation

Thirty-eight boys and girls from the Synod of North Carolina have found Barium Springs to be their new home since the vacation period. They have come from across the state. The following is a list of these boys and girls together with their home towns: Steve Creedmore, Statesville; David Clark, Joseph Clark, Patricia Clark, Charlotte; Jerry Ellis, Billy Ellis, Larry Ellis, Jo Ann Ellis, Monroe; Charles Phillips, Linda Phillips, Penny Phillips, Charlotte; Karen Keeton, Winston-Salem; Pat Williams, Roger Williams, Brenda Williams, Linda Williams, Rickie Williams, Chadbourn; Lynne Grady, Nancy Grady, Wilson; Arnette Crocker, Moncure; Leonard Farrar, Margie Farrar, Burlington; Janice Carter, Tommy Carter, Wilmington; Brenda Ivey, Laurinburg; Donald Freeze, Alice Freeze, Vickie Freeze, Fayetteville.

These boys and girls range in age from first graders to sophomores in high school and are a fine group, making good adjustments in their new setting.

Cottage News

RUMPLE HALL

Hi Folks!

This has been a busy month for all of us, and there are lots of things to tell about.

We enjoyed Thanksgiving and its' 2 days free from study. Also, we were glad to see the graduates who were here for the holidays, especially Nancy Joyner who was in our cottage.

We have with us a new girl in our house, Arnette Crocker from Moncure. She is a sophomore and on the basketball team.

Our first basketball game was on December 1 with East Montgomery. Two girls from our cottage are o nthe team—Arnette, and Sue Bush who is manager. We have a pretty good prospect this season.

Well, Christmas is just around the corner, and everyone has their "Santa Claus" letters written. Let's hope no one gets a bag of switches!

We all had a ball at the dance sponsored by the Senior Highs. Let's hope it won't be the last one. Also, the Talent Show was great! Everyone enjoyed that!

That about winds up for this month, so "till we meet again."

JENNIE GILMER

Hello, again, from Jennie Gilmer Boys

We enjoyed a Thanksgiving visit and treats from Mrs. Comb's Circle of Mooresville Presbyterian Church, and now Christmas is just around the corner.

UNDER THE STEEPLE

By Rev. Hugh B. Carter, Jr.

It was the minister's privilege during November to speak in some of the churches about Barium Springs. It so happened that a speaking engagement at the Church in the Pines coincided with the last day of school at St. Andrews and arrangements had been made for me to meet one of our students and bring him to Barium for the Thanksgiving holidays. This gave me my first opportunity to tour the campus and see the fine new buildings and the lovely landscape. It also gave me opportunity to invite Jim Bunnell to share in the program at the Church in the Pines. Jim was most agreeable, and after we had feasted on chicken and dumplings and cranberry salad and several other delicacies, and after we had eaten the world's best apple pie, I was quite ready to introduce Jim and enjoy the program.

I was so proud of Jim. You know how straight he stands, all six feet of him and a little more. He looked directly into the faces of his hearers with unflinching blue eyes and began to tell what Barium had meant to him through the years. Jim came here when he was seven years old. Now he is a Junior in college with hopes of going to med school and dedicating his life as a medical missionary. (He didn't mention this in his talk.) He did say that he owed his education and his spiritual development to friends like those at the Church in the Pines whose love and loyalty makes Barium Springs a home under the banner of Christ. If I could make such a talk on as short notice as Jim had, I wouldn't start worrying about Sunday morning's sermon on the preceeding Tuesday!

We are mighty proud of all of our college students, so many of whom were in and out during the recent holiday. Donald Frazier and friend Janet came by the study to say hello on Saturday afternoon. Donald is at State College, a Junior. Judy Bolton was in Church, looking forward to graduation from the Presbyterian School of Nursing in August. Gary Martin stopped by the manse on Sunday afternoon with friends from Pfeiffer College. Gary is a Junior pre-med student with a special scholarship and doing superior work. Beverly McClure and Julia Clendenin, St. Andrews students were here, and Julia spent an afternoon practicing the organ. She is a music major. Tom Finley, our Davidson Senior was here, and Mac McClure, Richard Blackburn, Herb Cochrane from the University. Mac, who is a graduate student in the school of Social Work dropped by for a brief chat before catching his bus to Maryland where he will do field work. (He barely made the bus, so I learned later.) Celia Donaldson and Nancy Joyner from Woman's College were here, and Jean Murdoch brought her "little sister" from Savannah on holiday from Mary Baldwin College in Staunton, Virginia; Beverly Hyde happened in just in time for a Sunday afternoon ride to the airport and around. We are looking for all these students back for the Christmas Holidays along with the ones who couldn't get back at Thanksgiving time.

We would like to leave this Christmas thought with you from the writings of Dr. Paul Scherer: On Christmas, we celebrate the day when God made himself so manifest that men have not been able to get away from him. Towering o'er the wrecks of time is that cross of His.

Three of our boys are playing varsity basketball: Ed, Bobby, and Braxton; and Larry is on the Junior Varsity team. Though both boys and girls lost the first game (non-conference) we're hoping for wins from now on.

Recently we've had a Senior High Fellowship dance and a trip to the Shrine Bowl Game for many boys, and we're eagerly looking forward to Christmas holidays and activities.

Merry Christmas!

NORTH COTTAGE

Hi Folk,

So much has been happening these past few weeks we can hardly get it all down on paper. We are very lucky to have a new girl in our cottage. Her name is Janice Carter, from Wilmington, N. C.; she is fourteen years old and in the ninth grade. Janice has a pleasing personality and has already made many friends.

This year we have three Senior girls on the Troutman Basketball Team. They are Patsy Ross, an all-conference forward; Patsy Porter, guard; and Wilma Bush, guard. With these girls on the team we are bound to win.

One of our Seniors, Wilma Bush, has been busy making speeches for various church groups and organizations. She has made many new friends and is astonished by people's interest in Barium.

This week the Senior Class has been busy selecting superlatives. Patsy Porter and Charles McLean were selected Mr. and Miss Troutman High School. Pamela Fair was elected Best Looking and Miss Merry Christmas. We are very proud of our Seniors and will certainly miss them when they leave.

Along with all the good things comes the bad. Mae Jolly, one of our girls, had to have her appendix removed and has been in the hospital. She is home now and is getting along fine.

Naturally, everyone is looking forward to Christmas. Many of us attended the Statesville parade. A few of the clowns were on campus entertaining the boys and girls. It really gave us the Christmas spirit. We wish you the best during the holidays and all year around.
